

SES-NJ; NYI TEAM TO SUPPORT 25TH-ANNUAL CPNJ AUBREY LEWIS FOOTBALL CLASSIC, SATURDAY, JUNE 26, AT THE NEW MEADOWLANDS STADIUM

Highlight of Year-Round Roster of Events to Benefit Infants, Children, Adults, Families with Cerebral Palsy and Other Special Needs throughout Northern New Jersey

BRIDGEWATER, NJ, June 25, 2010 - SES-NJ (www.q2lnp.com), a full-service electrical integration firm with more than 20 years experience serving the New York and New Jersey marketplace, and NYI (www.nyi.net), an award-winning, mission-critical data services provider, have teamed to support Cerebral Palsy North Jersey's 25th-annual Aubrey Lewis Football Classic, Saturday, June 26 at the New Meadowlands.

"The generous support of companies like SES-NJ and NYI is what has kept this event going and kept it so vital for the past 25 years," said David Bishop, CPNJ. "We are proud to celebrate the silver anniversary of the Aubrey Lewis Football Classic with these and other public-spirited donors and volunteers, past and present."

"The work of CPNJ is vital to our community," said Todd Hirsch, President, SES-NJ. "We have been involved in this event for the past decade and look forward to supporting it for decades to come." Hirsch added, "It is also our pleasure to welcome NYI. We know that once they see the commitment of everyone involved, both on and off the field, they too will become life-long supporters."

"SES-NJ is responsible for introducing us to this wonderful and worthy cause," commented Phillip Koblence, VP Operations, NYI. "We look forward to joining them on the field on Saturday to carry forward CPNJ's mission with a spirit of fun and good sportsmanship. As a company that deeply believes in good corporate citizenship, NYI is honored to have been invited to participate, especially in light of this year's 25-year milestone."

The Aubrey Lewis Football Classic is presented by CPNJ. Founded in 1953, CPNJ is an independent, nonprofit organization delivering life-affirming services to infants, children, adults and their families throughout northern New Jersey. Not limited to serving consumers with cerebral palsy, CPNJ provides specialized programs to meet a wide range of educational, therapeutic and social needs of people with various disabilities.
